Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

United States Storybook Treasures: A primary objective for the 2020-21 school year was to provide literacy support and resources to students at school and also in their homes. More than 300 home-learning instruction packages and books were distributed to students and families. Through the Storybook Treasures (SBT) program, Pre-K through Grade 3 teachers were trained to implement this targeted supplemental reading program. Underfunded schools, libraries, and disadvantaged households often mean lack of access to literacy experiences. This was the case for the students in the SBT program. SBT directly addressed this need as students built a personal home library collection of books, and also utilized their expanded classroom library. Teachers implementing the program gave SBT their highest possible rating.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Guatemala Asociacion Los Patojos Suenos e Ideas en Accion (Los Patojos): Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, it was necessary to assess and meet the specific needs of El Patojismo. As schools began, a hybrid model was implemented to present instruction to students either on-line or in person. The situation was a challenge for our team and our families, and was handled on an individual basis. Students with access to Wi-Fi participated in on-line instruction, while those without internet access received materials and support delivered to their homes. The first graduating class received their diplomas at the completion of the school year. Widespread malnutrition was combated by educators and volunteers through the distribution of critical, basic needs supplies, including: vegetables, fruits, dry goods, atole, proteins, and personal hygiene supplies. In many cases, this was the only sustenance accessible and an essential lifeline for this struggling community. Through our attending physician and health care attendants. resources were delivered which included basic health exams and vaccinations. The entire school and surrounding community were served.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Cambodia People Improvement Organization: Schools in Cambodia were also faced with challenges due to Covid-19. Teachers at the People Improvement Organization (PIO) developed and implemented plans to deliver instruction utilizing technology as parts of the school year were forced into remote learning plans. Teachers and staff engaged students in on-line learning, comprehensive remote academic curriculum, and home outreach. Social workers made home visits to distribute basic supplies and food to families in need. Overall, more than 1.400 students in the K-12th grade received eleven months of instruction in this program, compared to state-funded schools receiving nine months of instruction during the course of the year. Students at PIO continued to outperform state-funded schools based on academic testing. In December 2020, 87 students graduated, with 14 enrolled in university, the high school English pass-rate was 80%, and students continue to out-perform those in state-funded schools.

Part X, Line 2:	The Organization follows FASB ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. This pronouncement seeks to reduce the diversity in practice associated with certain aspects o f measurement and recognition in accounting for income taxes. It prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position that an entity takes or expects to take in a tax return. An entity may onl y recognize or continue to recognize tax positions that meet a "more likely than not" thre shold. The Organization assesses its income tax positions based on management's evaluation of the facts, circumstances and information available at the reporting date. The Organiza tion uses the prescribed "more likely than not" threshold when making its assessment. At a doption, the Organization did not record any cumulative effect adjustment, and the Organiz ation did not accrue any interest expense or penalties related to tax positions. There are currently no open Federal or State tax years under audit.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2:	Organization's procedures for monitoring the use of its grants and other assistance outside the United States: Budgets: Each grantee submits a budget based on JustWorld's fiscal year for review by the board. Upon approval by the board, grantees sign a Memorandum of Understanding outlining the scope, effective period, funding, and terms of the grant. Any changes to JustWorld-funded programs or the use of funds must be requested by grantees at least thirty days in advance for approval by the board. JustWorld communicates directly with grantees on a monthly basis to coordinate and review budget proposals, confirm receipt of grant funding sent, collect reports and project updates, and organize site visits. Grantees with organizational budgets greater than $300,000 submit audited financial statements to JustWorld. Small organizations may provide other financial statements such as 990s, comprehensive organizational budgets or reviewed financial statements. Grantees submit quarterly reports with data measuring services offered through their programs as well as year-end accomplishments. Grantees also periodically submit program updates and photos showing the programs in action. JustWorld visits grantees on an annual basis, or as often as possible, taking into consideration local environments and cost efficiency. JustWorld volunteers make periodic visits throughout the year as well.
